Same of the same o

On "One Sweet Day" 2G's came to party in the fall of '96. Fresh outta Fox we came through the doors of WHS sportin' knee socks, sweater vest, Nikes and Reeboks. It was the year we had our "riot" and the football team was champs, Mr. Morris was our principal but moved on with better plans. The death of Tupac haunted us but he left us with a song, gotta "Keep Your Heads Up", and we represented strong.

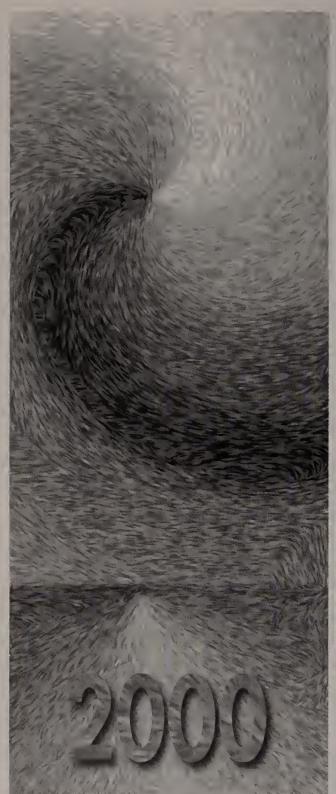

The introduction of scarves, roller wraps, Shirley temple and flat twists changed the whole outlook of our young black sis', while the brothers rocked jerseys from the New York Knicks. We must remember Homecoming, girls thought they were "dimes", with the wave caps and khakis dudes thought they were "fine". Riverside was a "trip" and we'll never forget how everyone was hot and got all wet. Eugene Robinson, a former Weaver grad, sparked a hope in our team from the success that he had.

"Wha! Wha!" was the song of our Junior Year. Knee boots, Timbs and butterfly clips were the standard gear. A class outing and Junior Prom was "The Thing" we never had, What could be worst, the whole class was mad! We were almost there, one year to go, no time for slacking or acting slow. We left that summer with a dream in mind, that all of us would graduate "ON TIME"......

Senior year is here and what could be better, than glitter, cornrows, coach and leather. All the "Hot Boys" had Avis, Ice and gold teeth, while the "Hot Girls" rocked stank butt jeans, with red, black, brown, cream boots and their fleece. Mr. Stringer came in and turned things around, he opened up the breezeway and locked things down. Its been a "Hard Knock Life" but we finally made it. We don't have time to "Breathe and Stop" cause next year we gon' "Do It Again". We'll look back on this and wish we could "Turn Back The Hands of Time". But it won't be forgotten, now its our lives we must define. We can finally "Wild Out" after we walk across the stage while proud families and friends fill us with praise. Off to college and careers we may go, this is the final chapter and we end it like "WHOA!!"

Junior Prom 1999

Everyone knows the sad story of our Junior Prom... But we still had fun at Michelle Davis's House!!!

If you think Jillian and Tangela were beautiful for the Junior Prom, wait until the SENIOR PROM!!

What could have been.....

Tonya and Michelle looked lovely.

We were all saddened by the decision to cancel our Junior Prom. We sincerely thank Mr. and Mrs. Davis for allowing us to party in their lovely home.

Rashaunda swore she was cute. Why is she the only person with a t-shirt on? Talk about being under dressed.

Rashaunda plays operator as Jillian and Tonya tell her who to call to get the party started.

Class of

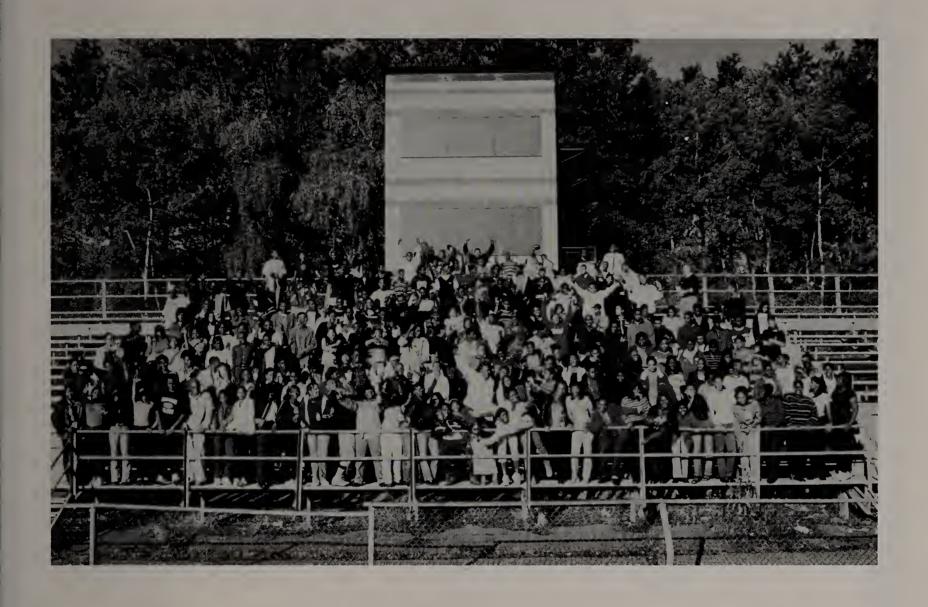

Dear Seniors,

I am writing this to say thank you for all the things that you have done for me. When I came here as a new teacher I was nervous and uncertian of how I was going to be accepted and treated. I was treated well by most of my classes, but those who really made me feel like I belonged were the juniors that I had as students and the ones that I didn't. There were so many students that came to me everyday and said hello and made up nicknames to make me smile. It is this years' seniors that has let me know that I made the right choice in life. You have driven me to do the best that I can and to become the best teacher that I can. I wish you all the best in what ever you do and always know that I am here to help you in what ever way that I can.

You all have made me so proud to be a Weaver teacher and I will truly miss all of you no matter how many times you drove me crazy. I can't wait for you to come back and visit. Thank you again.

Your Friend, Mr. Tomany

Congratulations JillianRose From: Mom & Dad

Dear Jillian,

Everyone knows that good friends are hard to find, so when ever I find one I like to let them know that there friendship is greatly appreciated. That being said, this is just a small way of saying thank-you for being such a good friend. thank you for being such a good friend. Thank you for being so typically you, sweet and kind hearted, in all that you do!

Yours truly,

Omar A.
